If the cited person desires a hearing to contest the new citation, he or she shall make a request in writing, within ten (10) days of receipt of the informal conference decision, to the bureau chief or his/her designee. (c) In addition to any other fines, penalties, and other remedies available to the Bureau, failure to timely comply with an order of abatement or pay an assessed fine as provided in subsection (b) shall constitute a ground for disciplinary action.
(d) An assessed fine shall be paid within 30 days of the date of receipt of a citation, or as applicable, a final affirmed or modified citation as provided in section 3394.53. If a fine is not paid after a citation has become final, the fine shall be added to the cited person's license or registration renewal fee. The objection shall include all of the following: the reason for the objection, copies of all evidence and argument on which the cited person relies when the written objection is filed, and the authorized signature, title, and contact information (telephone, email, or mailing address) of the person submitting the objection on behalf of the cited person.

(c) All evidence and argument regarding the objection shall be considered by the Chief. The Chief shall make the final decision on the composition of the panel before the informal citation review conference is held and shall send written notice of their decision at least 14 days before the date set for the informal citation review conference. There shall be no oral hearing or further administrative review of this decision.

(d) The Bureau chief may establish multiple panels as necessary to carry out the informal citation review conference process within the timeframes specified in section 3394.53.

(e) A panel member shall be subject to disqualification from participating in any informal citation review conference in which the member cannot accord a fair and impartial decision, including for the following reasons:

If the panel member is unable to participate after an informal citation review conference is held, but before a decision is rendered, the matter shall be reheard with a new panel appointed by the Chief.

As used herein, “pending” shall mean between the time the Bureau receives a written request for an informal citation review conference and the time the informal citation review panel affirms, modifies, or dismisses the citation. Communications involving matters not in controversy as specified in Government Code sections 11430.20 and 11430.30 shall not be considered impermissible.

(h) The Chief has discretion to remove any member of the panel at any time and for any reason, including for absence or unavailability, failure to proceed in the manner required by this article, or for any of the reasons set forth in subsection (e).

(i) This section shall become operative on [OAL Insert earliest quarterly effective date on or after July 1, 2023].
